NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

It should be noted that the Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements have been prepared by applying accounting standards and measurement criteria consistent with those applied by the Company for the preparation of the annual Consolidated Financial Statements, except for the modifications described in Note 1\(e\).

The accounting standards have been consistently applied in all entities of the Group.

(a) Unit of Measurement

Law No. 27,468 passed in November 2018 repealed the prohibition to present the Financial Statements adjusted for inflation established by Executive Order 664/2003, delegating its application to each controlling authority.

Also, on December 26, 2018, the CNV issued General Resolution No. 777/2018 authorizing issuing entities to present accounting information in homogeneous currency for annual financial statements, for interim and special periods ending on or after December 31, 2018, except for Financial Institutions and Insurance Companies.

On February 22, 2019, through Communication "A" 6651, the Argentine Central Bank established that the entities subject to its control had to restate the Financial Statements in constant currency for the fiscal years commenced from January 1, 2020 onwards.

Said standard was retroactively applied, and the transition date for financial institutions was January 1, 2019.

In the initial application of inflation adjustment, the equity accounts were restated as follows:

- Capital Stock plus Capital Adjustment: Capital from the subscription date, and if there were a capital adjustment prior to the transition date, this is absorbed in the new restated capital adjustment. For capitalization of accumulated income, the date is their capitalization date.
- Issuance Premium: Subscription Date.
- Irrevocable Contributions: Integration Date, or Decision Date of their Irrevocable nature.
- Profit Reserves: They are considered stated as of 12.31.18.
- The differences regarding the balances determined in accordance with the previous accounting framework were imputed through offsetting entry in Retained Earnings - Adjustment of Income from prior fiscal years.

To calculate the restatement adjustment, the index used was the National Consumer Price Index (CPI) prepared by the National Institute of Statistics and Census (Instituto Nacional de Estadística y Censo, INDEC) (base month: December 2016); for those items with a previous date of origin, the Wholesale Price Index (WPI) published by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences (Federación Argentina de Consejos Profesionales en Ciencias Económicas, FACPCE) was used, according to Resolution JG517/16.

The restatement mechanism establishes that:

- Monetary assets and liabilities will not be restated, as they are stated in the current measuring unit at the closing of the reporting period.
- Assets and liabilities subject to adjustments based on specific agreements will be adjusted according to such agreements.
- Non-monetary items measured at their current values at the end of the reporting period, such as net realizable value or others, will not be restated.
- The remaining non-monetary assets and liabilities will be restated by a general price index. The loss or profit from the net monetary position will be included in the net income for the reporting period, disclosing this information in a separate item called Loss on Net Monetary Position.
- Allocation to component items of Other Comprehensive Income in closing currency: in accordance with the provisions of Communication "A" 7211, the accrued monetary income with respect to items of a monetary nature that are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), must be recorded in the income of the period/fiscal year.

The Group opted for presenting the items of the Statement of Income at their nominal restated value. This implies that they are not disclosed net of inflation effect (in real terms).

Likewise, the monetary restatement of both Capital Stock and Paid-in Capital will be imputed to the account "Equity Adjustments - Capital Adjustments," considering the subscription date as the date of origin. When applying restatement of non-monetary assets, it should be considered that the resulting amount must in no case exceed the recoverable value.

Comparative information, as well as all the Statements and Schedules, is stated in homogeneous currency at closing. In the Statement of Changes in Shareholders' Equity and in the Statement of Cash Flows, both the initial balances and the period changes are restated in closing currency.

(b) Foreign Currency Translation

- Functional Currency and Presentation Currency

The figures included in the Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements are stated in their functional currency, that is, in the currency of the main economic environment in which the Group operates. The Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements are presented in Argentine pesos, which is the Group's functional and presentation currency.

- Transactions and Balances

The transactions in foreign currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate in force on the transactions or the valuation dates when the items are measured at closing exchange rate. Profits and losses in foreign currency resulting from the settlement of these transactions and the translation of monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency at closing exchange rate, are recognized in the Statement of Income in the item "Exchange Rate Differences on Gold and Foreign Currency," except when they are deferred in equity by transactions which qualify as cash flows hedges, if appropriate.

Balances are converted at the reference exchange rate of the US dollar defined by the Argentine Central Bank, in force at the close of operations on the last business day of each month.

As of June 30, 2026, December 31, 2025, and June 30, 2025, balances in US dollars were translated at the reference exchange rate (ARS 1483.0198, ARS 1459.4167, and ARS 1194.0833, respectively) established by the Argentine Central Bank. Foreign currencies other than the US dollar have been translated into this currency using the types of exchange rate reported by the Argentine Central Bank.

(c) Going concern

As of the date of these Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements, there is no uncertainty regarding events or conditions that may give rise to doubts about the possibility of the Group continuing to operate normally as a going concern.

(d) Comparative information

Balances as of December 31, 2025 and June 30, 2025 exposed in these Financial Statements, for comparison purposes, arise from the Financial Statements as of those dates stated in closing currency.

Certain reclassifications have been made on the figures corresponding to the financial statements presented in comparative format in order to maintain consistency in the exposure with the figures for the current period.

(e) New accounting standards, amendments and interpretations issued by the International Accounting Standards Board that have been adopted by the Group

Pursuant to the provisions of the Organic Charter of the Argentine Central Bank and the Law on Financial Institutions, the Argentine Central Bank shall issue its opinion regarding its approval for Financial Institutions as new IFRS, or amendments or repeals of those in force, are approved, and once these changes are adopted through the Adoption Circulars issued by the

The accounting standards applied in the preparation and presentation of these Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements are consistent with those used in the financial statements corresponding to the last fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, except for the modifications detailed below:

Amendment to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 – Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments
Item	These amendments clarify the requirements regarding the timing of recognition and derecognition of certain financial assets and liabilities, introducing a new exception for certain liabilities settled through an electronic cash transfer system. They also clarify and provide additional guidance for assessing whether a financial asset meets the solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI) criterion. In addition, they introduce new disclosures for certain instruments with contractual terms that may modify cash flows (such as certain instruments with features linked to achieving environmental, social and governance (ESG) targets), and update disclosures for equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income.
Publication date	May, 2024
Effective date	As from January 2026
Impact	No significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7: Contracts for electricity dependent on nature
Item	These amendments allow for a more accurate accounting representation of renewable energy contracts in the financial statements through the following changes: clarifying the application of the "own use" requirements; allowing, in certain cases, hedge accounting when these contracts are used as hedging instruments; and introducing new disclosures to better understand the impact of these contracts on financial performance and cash flows.
Publication date	December, 2024
Effective date	Annual periods commenced as of January 2026.
Impact	It is estimated that the application of this standard will not generate a significant impact on the Group's equity.

Annual improvements: IFRS 1, IFRS 7, IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7
Item	Annual improvements are limited to changes that clarify the wording of an Accounting Standard or correct relatively minor unintended consequences, omissions or conflicts between the requirements of Accounting Standards. The 2024 amendments relate to the following standards: IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards; IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures and its corresponding Application Guidance; IFRS 9 Financial Instruments IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements; and IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows.
Publication date	July, 2024
Effective date	Annual periods commenced as of January 2026. Early application is permitted.
Impact	It is estimated that the application of this standard will not generate a significant impact on the Group's equity.

(f) New accounting standards and amendments issued by the IASB that have not been adopted by the Group

The new standards, amendments, and interpretations published that are detailed below have not yet come into force and have not been adopted early:

IFRS 18: Presentation and Information to be Disclosed in the Financial Statements
Item	This new standard places special emphasis on the presentation of the Statement of Income. The new, essential concepts introduced by IFRS 18 relate to: The structure of the Statement of Income; disclosure requirements in the financial statements for certain yield measurements that are not reported in an entity's financial statements (i.e., yield measurements defined by the companies' management); and improvements in the principles of aggregation and disaggregation of accounting items in the primary financial statements and the explanatory notes, in general.
Publication date	April, 2024
Effective date	Annual periods commenced as of January 2027. Early application is permitted.
Impact	The impact on the Group's financial statements is being evaluated.
IFRS 19: Subsidiaries under No Public Responsibility - Disclosures
Item	This voluntary standard allows eligible subsidiaries to replace the disclosures required in each specific IFRS with reduced disclosures, also established in the standard. It seeks to balance the information needs of the users of the financial statements of these entities while saving costs for those responsible for preparing them. A subsidiary will be eligible if: it is under no public responsibility; and its parent company presents consolidated financial statements for public use in compliance with IFRS standards.
Publication date	May, 2024
Effective date	January 2027. Early application is permitted.
Impact	The impact on the Group's financial statements is being evaluated.
Amendment to IFRS 19: Subsidiaries under No Public Responsibility - Disclosure Requirements
Item	The amendments to IFRS 19 reduce the disclosure requirements for eligible subsidiaries without public accountability, aligning the Standard with IFRSs and amendments issued between February 2021 and May 2024. The amendments cover, among other matters, IFRS 18, amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7, amendments to IAS 12, amendments to IAS 21, and amendments to IFRS 9. Going forward, IFRS 19 will be amended concurrently with the issuance or revision of other IFRSs by the IASB.
Publication date	August, 2025
Effective date	These amendments allow IFRS 19 to incorporate all changes effective up to 1 January 2027, which is the date on which the Standard becomes effective.
Impact	The impact on the Group's financial statements is being evaluated.
Amendments to IAS 21 - Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates
Item	The IASB has issued amendments to IAS 21 on translation to a hyperinflationary presentation currency. These amendments are only relevant to entities whose presentation currency is that of a hyperinflationary economy and whose functional currency, or that of their foreign operations, is that of a non-hyperinflationary economy. The amendments require that all amounts (including comparative figures) be translated from a functional currency that is the currency of a non-hyperinflationary economy to a presentation currency that is the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, using the closing exchange rate at the date of the latest statement of financial position. The amendments also include an exception for entities whose functional and presentation currency is that of a hyperinflationary economy, allowing them not to retranslate comparative figures for their foreign operations into the functional currency of a non-hyperinflationary economy.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

IFRS 20 – Regulatory Assets and Regulatory Liabilities
Item	This new standard was designed for entities subject to a specific type of rate regulation. Its main objective is to help investors and users of financial statements better understand how rate regulation affects an entity's financial performance, financial position, and prospects for future cash flows.
Publication date	May, 2026.
Effective date	For annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2029.
Impact	No significant impact is expected on the Group's financial statements.

There are no other IFRS or IFRIC interpretations that are not effective and that are expected to have a significant impact on the Group.

NOTE 2. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND POLICIES

The preparation of Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements in accordance with the IFRS-based accounting framework requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires the Directors to exercise their judgment in the application process of the accounting standards established by the Argentine Central Bank to establish the Group's accounting policies.

The preparation of the Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements requires that estimates and evaluations be made to determine the amount of recorded assets and liabilities, and contingent assets and liabilities disclosed at the date of issuance thereof, as well as income and expenses recorded in the period. In this regard, estimates are made to calculate at a given time, among others, the fair value of Level 3 financial instruments, impairment losses on financial instruments, impairment of non-financial assets, income tax, deferred tax and the allocation of the purchase price in the business combination process of GGAL Holding S.A.. Likewise, conditions related to non-financial assets are monitored to determine whether they require a review of the remaining amortization or depreciation period, or indicate impairment in value that cannot be recovered. The real future income may differ from estimates and evaluations as of the date of preparation of these Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements.

In preparing these Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements, the critical judgments made by the Group in applying the accounting policies and the sources of information used for the respective estimates are the same as those applied in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, except as disclosed in point 1 \(e\).

NOTE 3. FAIR VALUES

The Group classifies the fair values of the financial instruments in 3 levels, according to the quality of the information used for their determination.

Level 1 Fair Value: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (as publicly traded derivative instruments, debt securities or instruments available for sale) is based on the quoted market prices (not adjusted) as of the date of the reporting period. If the quoted price is available within the 5 business days of the valuation date, and there is an active market for the instrument, this will be included in Level 1.

Level 2 Fair Value: The fair value of financial instruments not traded in active markets, for example, derivatives available over-the-counter, is determined using valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable information. If all the relevant variables to establish the fair value of a financial instrument are observable, the instrument is included in Level 2. If the variables to determine the price are not observable, the instrument will be valued in Level 3.

Level 3 Fair Value: If one or more relevant variables are not based on observable market information, the instrument is included in Level 3. This is the case of unquoted financial instruments.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

Valuation Techniques

The valuation techniques to determine the Fair Value includes:

- Market prices or quotes for similar instruments.
- Determination of estimated current value of the instruments.

The assessment technique to determine the Level 2 fair value is based on information other than the quote price included in Level 1, which are directly observable for assets or liabilities, both directly (i.e., prices) and indirectly (i.e., deriving from prices). For those instruments with no trading in the secondary market and which, if having to reverse positions, the Group would have to sell them to the Argentine Central Bank at the rate originally agreed in accordance with the provisions of the controlling authority, the price has been prepared based on said rate accrual.

The assessment technique to determine the Level 3 fair value of financial instruments is based on the price drawn by the curve, which is a method that compares the spread between the sovereign bond curve and the average cut-off rates of primary issuances, representing the different segments, according to the different risk ratings. If there are no representative primary issuances throughout the month, the following variants will be used:

- secondary market prices of instruments under the same conditions, which had quoted in the evaluation month;
- bidding and/or secondary market prices of the previous month, which will be taken based on their representativeness;
- spread calculated in the previous month, and it will be applied to the sovereign curve, in accordance with their reasonableness;
- a specific margin is applied, defined according to historical yields of instruments under the same conditions, based on a substantiated justification.

Based on the foregoing, the rates and spreads are determined to be used to discount the future cash flows and generate the instrument price.

All the modifications to the valuation methods are previously discussed and approved by the Group's key personnel.

The financial instruments of the group measured at fair value at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 are detailed below:

NOTE 4. CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash equivalents are held to comply with short-term payment obligations, rather than for investment or similar purposes. For a financial investment to be qualified as cash equivalent, it has to be easily convertible into a certain amount of cash and be subject to an insignificant risk of changes in its value. Therefore, such an investment will be a cash equivalent when its maturity is close, namely three or less months from its acquisition date. Interests in the principal of other companies will be excluded from cash equivalents.

9.2. Corporate Restructuring

On February 3, 2025, the Boards of Directors of the subsidiaries Banco Galicia, Galicia Asset Management S.A.U., Sudamericana Holding S.A., and GGAL Holdings S.A. decided to initiate the necessary procedures to carry out a Corporate Restructuring. The objective is to improve the organization and use of resources, as well as to achieve a more effective and efficient technical and administrative management.

The Corporate Reorganization will consist of a spin-off-merger and mergers by absorption, in accordance with the provisions of: (a) articles 88, first paragraph, section I, and 82 of the General Corporations Law No. 19,550, as amended ("Ley General de Sociedades N° 19,550" - "LGS"), (b) Articles 146, 151 and 152 of General Resolution 15/2024 of the IGJ, and (c) to frame it as three simultaneous and concatenated tax-free corporate reorganizations between entities of the same economic group under Article 80 of the Income Tax Law, text ordered by Decree 824/2019, as amended (the "LIG").

As a result, GGAL Holdings S.A. will be spun off, dissolved without liquidation, and absorbed through a merger by Banco Galicia, Galicia Asset Management S.A.U., and Sudamericana Holding S.A.

In this way, GGAL Holdings S.A. will transfer:

- 99.985% of its shares in Banco GGAL S.A. to Banco Galicia.
- 56.439% of its shares in GGAL Asset Management S.A. to Galicia Asset Management S.A.U.
- 98% of its shares in GGAL Seguros S.A. and GGAL Seguros de Retiro S.A., and 100% of its shares in GGAL Participaciones S.A.U. to Sudamericana Holdings S.A.

On the other hand, the mergers by absorption contemplated in the Corporate Restructuring will be carried out as follows:

- Unification of the banking business: Banco Galicia will absorb Banco GGAL S.A., which will be dissolved without liquidation, resulting in a single banking entity.
- Unification of the mutual fund management business: Galicia Asset Management S.A.U. will absorb GGAL Asset Management S.A., which will be dissolved without liquidation, thus consolidating the business into a single entity.
- Absorption of GGAL Participaciones S.A.U.: Sudamericana Holdings S.A. will absorb GGAL Participaciones S.A.U., which will be dissolved without liquidation.

On April 23, 2025, the Shareholders' Meetings of Banco Galicia, Galicia Asset Management S.A.U., and Sudamericana Holding S.A. approved the comprehensive corporate reorganization within the framework of an economic group, pursuant to Article 80 of the Income Tax Law (restated 2019).

Additionally, as a result of the reorganization, Articles 1 and 4 of the Corporate Bylaws were amended to reflect the change of name from Banco de Galicia y Buenos Aires S.A.U. to Banco de Galicia y Buenos Aires S.A., and the increase in share capital to 101 ordinary shares with a nominal value of one peso and five votes per share, and 754,761,922 ordinary shares with a nominal value of one peso and one vote per share. All shares are book-entry shares.

NOTE 18. NET CURRENT INCOME TAX LIABILITIES

The balances recorded in these items correspond to the amount of the income tax provision, net of advances made and other credits on account of this tax.

Tax Inflation Adjustment

Law 27,430 introduced a modification in which it established that the subjects referred to in paragraphs a) to e) of Article 53 of the current Income Tax Law, for the purpose of determining the taxable net earnings, should deduct or incorporate to the tax income of the fiscal year being settled, the tax inflation adjustment. Said adjustment would be applicable in the fiscal year where a variation percentage of the consumer price index is verified, greater than one hundred percent (100%), accumulated in the thirty-six (36) months prior to the closing of the fiscal year being settled.

For the fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2021, the positive or negative inflation adjustment, as the case may be, to be calculated, would be charged its entirety (100%), without any deferral in the fiscal year in which it is generated.

Banco Galicia, considering the case law on this matter as evaluated by its legal and tax advisors, filed its annual income tax return for fiscal year 2025 before the Tax and Customs Collection and Control Agency (Agencia de Recaudación y Control Aduanero – "ARCA"), considering the full impact of the tax inflation adjustment.

Tax Rate

On June 16, 2021, Law 27,630 was enacted, which establishes for capital companies a structure of staggered rates for income tax with three segments in relation to the level of accumulated taxable net earnings, applicable for the years fiscal years started on or after January 1, 2021, inclusive. The rates within this procedure are as follows:

The Group has recorded in these financial statements the impacts generated by this change.

During the third quarter, the Group recognized an increase in deferred tax assets, derived from the accounting results for the period reflected in future tax credit estimates. This increase generated an income tax recovery in that quarter. Actual future results may differ from the estimates and assessments made to date, which will have an impact on the determination of the Group's income tax.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

NOTE 32. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT AND RISK POLICIES

The main risks to which the Group is exposed are classified into ten categories: capital risk; financial risks (market risk, foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and liquidity risk); credit risk; operational risk; technological risk; reputation & ESG risk; strategic risk; compliance risk; cybersecurity risk; and data model risk.

There have been no significant changes in the aforementioned risk management policies, with respect to those set forth in the financial statements as of December 31, 2025.

NOTE 33. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

a) Tax Aspects

At the date of preparation of these Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements, with varying degrees of progress, there are ongoing review and resolution processes filed by provincial and City of Buenos Aires tax authorities, mainly related to issues arising from the application of the turnover tax.

These processes and their eventual effects are subject to permanent monitoring and, although it is considered to have complied with tax obligations in accordance with current regulations, the allowances that are considered adequate have been made according to the evolution of each of the processes.

As of June 30, 2026 several claims for refund of the Income Tax paid in excess for the fiscal years 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022, for the amounts of ARS 433,815, ARS 459,319, ARS 944,338, ARS 866,842, ARS 3,646,382, ARS 4,403,712, ARS 629,837 and ARS 4,039,802 (nominal values), respectively, were submitted by Banco Galicia to the Customs Collection and Control Agency (Agencia de Recaudación y Control Aduanero - ARCA, ex AFIP). These are based on jurisprudence precedents that establish the unconstitutionality of the rules that disable the application of the tax inflation adjustment, resulting in situations of confiscatory nature. In light of the delay in the resolution by the ARCA, the corresponding judicial claims were filed.

Likewise, in connection with the 2016 refund claim, on May 16, 2025, the Court of Appeals issued a favorable ruling, upholding the first-instance judgment. The Court also ordered that legal costs be borne by each party to the extent incurred in both instances. On May 30, 2025, the National Tax Authority filed an Extraordinary Federal Appeal, the response to which was submitted by the Company, and the matter remains pending resolution by the Court of Appeals. With respect to fiscal year 2017, on June 12, 2025, the Court of Appeals upheld the favorable judgment. The Extraordinary Federal Appeal filed by the National Tax Authority was rejected on August 12, 2025, after which the National Tax Authority filed a Complaint Appeal (Recurso de Queja) before the Argentine Supreme Court (CSJN), which is currently pending resolution. Regarding fiscal year 2015, a favorable first-instance judgment was obtained on March 10, 2026. Such judgment was appealed by the National Tax Authority and is currently before the Court of Appeals for further proceedings. With respect to fiscal year 2018, following the favorable first-instance judgment issued on May 28, 2025, a favorable Court of Appeals judgment was obtained on June 9, 2026.

Additionally, with respect to claims originating from the absorbed entities, Banco GGAL S.A. and GGAL Holdings S.A., refund claims were filed jointly for fiscal years 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 for each entity, while the claim corresponding to fiscal year 2018 was filed only by Banco GGAL S.A.

The claims of Banco GGAL S.A. for fiscal years 2014 through 2017 obtained a final favorable ruling from the Argentine Supreme Court (CSJN) dated April 26, 2026, from which an amount of ARS 9,007,368 (principal plus accrued interest as of that date) is expected, pending approval of the final settlement and subsequent collection. The refund claim of Banco GGAL S.A. for fiscal years 2014 through 2017 represents taxes paid in excess amounting to ARS 2,583,570, while the claim corresponding to fiscal year 2018 amounts to ARS 1,287,535. The claims of GGAL Holdings S.A. corresponding to fiscal years 2014 through 2017, involving principal amounting to ARS 124,897, obtained a favorable first-instance judgment on April 27, 2026, which was appealed by ARCA. The claim corresponding to fiscal year 2018, on the other hand, has reached a final and unappealable judgment and was collected on June 9, 2026, in the amount of ARS 51,540, including interest.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

Identical claims were filed by other Group subsidiaries before the Customs Collection and Control Agency (Agencia de Recaudación y Control Aduanero - ARCA, ex AFIP): Tarjetas Cuyanas S.A., (Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U.) predecessor company, for 2014 and 2016 periods, for an amount of ARS 145,478, nominal value; Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U., for 2014 and 2016 periods, for a total amount of ARS 580,164, nominal value; and for 2015, 2017, and 2018 periods, for an amount of ARS 149,763, ARS 326,498, and ARS 973,843, nominal value, respectively. In light of the delay in the resolution by the ARCA (ex AFIP), the corresponding judicial claims were filed. On May 26, 2020, Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U. filed before the ARCA (ex AFIP) a claim for the repetition of the Income Tax corresponding to 2019 period for ARS 1,364,949 in nominal value. With respect to the action filed in connection with fiscal year 2018 of Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U., a favorable first-instance judgment was obtained on August 14, 2024 and, subsequently, a favorable ruling was issued by the Federal Court of Appeals on November 18, 2025, which was appealed by the tax authorities through a Complaint Appeal (Recurso de Queja) before the Argentine Supreme Court.

Additionally, Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U. (as successor to Cobranzas Regionales S.A.) filed a declaratory action against ARCA on February 4, 2026, seeking a determination of the proper application of the tax loss carryforward adjustment mechanism provided under the Income Tax Law with respect to fiscal year 2023, involving an amount of ARS 10,992,428. As of the issuance date of these Financial Statements, the Company has obtained a favorable preliminary injunction issued by Federal Court No. 2 of Córdoba, ordering ARCA to refrain from assessing tax differences or initiating and/or continuing administrative or judicial proceedings related to the matters under dispute.

At the closing of these financial statements, the Group does not record contingent assets derived from the aforementioned presentations.

b) Consumer Advocacy Associations

Consumer associations, acting on behalf of all customers and former customers, have filed lawsuits and pre-litigation claims against Banco Galicia in connection with the charging of certain fees, tax assessments, application of interest rates, charges, among other banking practices and services.

The Group considers that the resolution of these disputes will not have a significant impact on its equity.

c) Penalties applied to Banco de Galicia y Buenos Aires S.A. and summary proceedings filed by the Argentine Central Bank.

The sanctions applied and the proceedings initiated by the Argentine Central Bank are described in detail in Note 36.6.

NOTE 34. OFF-BALANCE SHEET ITEMS

In the normal course of business, in order to meet the financing needs of customers, some transactions are processed which are recorded off-balance sheet. These instruments expose the Group to credit risk, in addition to the financing recognized in the asset. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit, letters of credit reserve, guarantees granted and acceptances.

The same credit policies are used for agreed credits, guarantees and loan granting. Pending commitments and guarantees do not represent an unusual credit risk.

Agreed Credits

They are commitments to grant loans to a customer at a future date, subject to compliance with certain contractual agreements that, in general, have fixed maturity dates or other termination clauses, and may require payment of a commission.

The lines of credit are revocable by the Entity. The total amounts of the agreed credits do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The solvency of each customer is assessed on a case- by-case basis.

Guarantees Granted

The issuer bank commits itself to refund the loss to the beneficiary if the guaranteed debtor breaches their obligation at maturity date.

Documentary Export/Import Credits

They are conditional commitments issued by the Group to guarantee a customer's compliance as regards a third party.

Liabilities for Foreign Trade Operations

They are conditional commitments for foreign trade transactions.

Our exposure to the loss of credit in the event of noncompliance by the other party in the financial instrument is represented by the notional contractual amount of the same investments.

The credit exposure for these transactions is detailed below:

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

CNV Summary Proceeding No. 87/2024.

- Date of notification of the opening of the summary proceeding: April 30, 2024.
- Imputation of Charges: Charges brought: alleged violation of Article 117(b) of Law No. 26,831, as amended; Article 2(a), (b) and (c), Chapter III, Title XII, Section II of the CNV Rules (2013 Revised Text, as amended); and Article 59 of Law No. 19,550. The charges are based on a report issued by the Argentine Central Bank and submitted to the CNV, which identified transactions that allegedly affected trading volumes and prices and resulted in a distorted application of Communication "A" 7546 and related regulations in connection with the exercise of put options acquired by the Argentine Central Bank. According to the report, transactions carried out on February 19 and 20, 2024 by the Bank and its related entities Galicia Securities S.A.U. and INVIU S.A.U. allegedly enabled the exercise of the liquidity option (PUT) on Dual Bond (TDE25) holdings with a nominal value of ARS 113 million, resulting in an apparent excess of ARS 23,072,000 over the extrapolated price that allegedly should have applied. The resulting gain was recorded under "gain/(loss) from measurement of financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss" in the Bank's separate Statement of Income.

36.7. ISSUANCE OF BONDS

Debt Securities issues are detailed in Notes 17 and 19.

36.8. RESTRICTIONS TO DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS

According to Art. 70 of the General Companies Act, Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. must transfer to Legal Reserve 5% of the profit for the fiscal year, until said reserve reaches 20% of the capital stock plus the balance of the Capital Adjustment account.

As regards Banco Galicia and Naranja Digital Compañía Financiera S.A.U., Argentine Central Bank regulations stipulate that 20% of the profits as per the Statement of Income at fiscal year closing must be allocated to Legal Reserve, plus (or minus) the Adjustments of the previous fiscal years and minus the accumulated loss, if any, at the closing of the previous fiscal year.

This proportion is applied regardless of the Legal Reserve to Capital Stock ratio. Whenever the Legal Reserve is used to absorb losses, profits may only be distributed again when the Reserve value reaches 20% of the Capital Stock plus the Capital Adjustment.

In accordance with the conditions established by the Argentine Central Bank, profits may only be distributed to the extent that Income is positive, after deducting the following items from the Retained Earnings, in addition to the Legal Reserve and that set forth in Bylaws, which set up be enforceable: the difference between the book value and the market value of public sector assets, and/or Argentine Central Bank's debt instruments not valued at market price, the amounts activated by deposits-related judicial causes, and the non-accounted adjustments required by the Argentine Central Bank and the external audit.

Additionally, another requirement in order to be able to distribute profits is to comply with the minimum capital technical ratio. The latter, exclusively for these purposes, will be determined by excluding the items mentioned above from asset and Retained Earnings. Likewise, the existing exemptions in terms of requirement, integration and/or minimum capital position will not be computed.

The Argentine Central Bank established that a capital conservation margin must be maintained in addition to the minimum capital requirement, equivalent to 3.5% of risk-weighted assets. Said margin must exclusively be integrated with Level 1 ordinary principal, net of deductible items. Income distribution will be limited when the level and composition of the entity's Regulatory Capital puts said distribution within the range of the capital conservation margin.

The Argentine Central Bank provided that income distribution must be performed with its prior authorization.

The Argentine Central Bank authorized, through 12.31.26, financial institutions to distribute earnings in three equal monthly installments, starting on the third business day of May, for an amount of up to 60% of profit for fiscal year 2025, net of the amounts allocated to the legal and statutory reserves required to be constituted, subject to the Argentine Central Bank's prior authorization. In turn, the amount to be distributed must be determined in homogeneous currency as of the date of the Shareholders' Meeting.

In April, the BCRA authorized Banco de Galicia y Buenos Aires S.A. to distribute profits totalling ARS 300,000,000, expressed in December 2024 currency, equivalent to ARS 365,898,739 expressed in June currency, of which two installments had been paid as of the date of signing these consolidated condensed interim financial statements.

The Ordinary and Extraordinary General Meeting of Tarjeta Naranja S.A.U. held on March 16, 2006 resolved to set the maximum limit for the distribution of dividends at 25% of the realized and liquid earnings of each fiscal year, said restriction will remain in force as long as the Company's Shareholders' Equity is less than ARS 300,000 (ARS 173,178,395 in closing currency).

NOTE 37. ECONOMIC CONTEXT WHERE THE GROUP OPERATES

The Group operates in a complex economic context, both in the national and international spheres.

Regarding the international environment, the second quarter of 2026 was shaped by volatility resulting from the conflict between the United States and Iran, the change in leadership of the Federal Reserve (Fed), and a marked acceleration in investment in Artificial Intelligence (AI) infrastructure. The quarter began with a conditional ceasefire and the initial steps toward reopening the Strait of Hormuz, which reduced the geopolitical risk premium and placed downward pressure on crude oil prices. Brent crude oil, which had reached highs of US$ 119 per barrel during the first quarter, declined by 19.3% in April and 20.8% in May, closing June at approximately US$ 70 per barrel, virtually returning to pre-war levels.

On the monetary front, Kevin Warsh assumed the chairmanship of the Federal Reserve at the end of May, in a context of accelerating inflation, with core PCE inflation reaching 3.4% year-over-year in May and interest rates standing at 3.5%-3.75%. In turn, the European Central Bank also kept interest rates unchanged, while highlighting concerns regarding the increase in energy costs.

The combination of lower geopolitical risk, solid corporate earnings and expansion of AI-related capital expenditures (CapEx) fully reversed the scenario observed during the previous quarter. The S&P 500 increased by 15.2% and the Nasdaq by 21.6%, led by the semiconductor sector. Following declines of 4.3% and 7.0%, respectively, during the first quarter, cumulative performance as of the end of the second quarter of 2026 reached 10.2% and 13.1%, respectively.

At the local level, after closing 2025 with average Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth of 4.5%, which generated a statistical carryover effect of 1.0% for the current year, the economy recorded a seasonally adjusted increase of 0.7% in the first quarter of 2026. With respect to the second quarter, the Monthly Economic Activity Estimator (EMAE) showed seasonally adjusted monthly contractions in April (-1.5%) and May (-0.5%). Consequently, in May the indicator stood 1.5% below the December 2025 level.

During the first three months of 2026, and in line with the trend observed during the second half of 2025, inflation continued to accelerate on a monthly basis, reaching a peak of 3.4% in March 2026. In subsequent months, inflation decelerated, recording monthly variations of 2.6% in April, 2.1% in May and 1.9% in June. In July, headline inflation reached 2.1%, accelerating relative to June, partly due to seasonal factors. Cumulative inflation during the first seven months of 2026 amounted to 19.3%, while the year-over-year inflation rate in July stood at 33.8%.

During the first four months of 2026, the exchange rate followed a downward trend, which began to reverse in mid-April. During the first four months of the year, the exchange rate declined by 4.6%, but increased by 7.6% between April and July. Based on the latest available information, the ARS/USD exchange rate stood at ARS 1,506.9 per US$, compared to ARS 1,459.4 per US$ at the end of 2025.

As from January 1, 2026, the upper and lower limits of the exchange rate floating band began to adjust each month in line with the latest monthly inflation rate published by INDEC (t-2). The exchange rate remains within the floating exchange rate band.

During 2026, implementation of the Extended Fund Facility arrangement agreed with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) continued. In May 2026, the IMF Executive Board approved the second review of the program, enabling a disbursement of approximately US$ 1.0 billion. In its published report, the IMF acknowledged the progress achieved under the stabilization program, reflected in the deceleration of inflation and the maintenance of fiscal surpluses.

The second review of the IMF arrangement establishes a minimum foreign currency purchase target of US$ 10.0 billion and a minimum increase in net international reserves of US$ 8.0 billion for 2026. At the beginning of 2026, the Argentine Central Bank had already resumed foreign currency purchases from the private sector within the context of the remonetization phase announced by the monetary authority. As of the date of issuance of this report, purchases totaled US$ 13.587 billion and international reserves amounted to US$ 49.546 billion. This represents an increase of US$ 8.451 billion compared to year-end 2025.

During 2026, deposits and loans in U.S. dollars held by the private sector increased. As of August 11, 2026, private sector deposits denominated in foreign currency totaled US$ 40.365 billion, representing an increase of US$ 3.380 billion compared to the year-end 2025 balance of US$ 36.985 billion. Likewise, U.S. dollar-denominated loans to the private sector amounted to US$ 24.874 billion, representing an increase of US$ 6.271 billion compared to the year-end 2025 balance of US$ 18.603 billion.

During 2026, the monetary base expanded by ARS 3,074,663 million, mainly explained by foreign currency purchases from the private sector (ARS 19,095,239 million) and profit transfers to the Treasury (ARS 24,400,000 million). This effect was partially offset through Other Operations with the Treasury (ARS -22,492,093 million), foreign currency sales to the Treasury (ARS -9,930,034 million) and Other factors (ARS -7,998,450 million).

After closing 2025 at 28.9%, the Argentine Wholesale Rate (TAMAR) of private banks, which is calculated based on peso-denominated time deposits with a minimum amount of ARS 1.3 billion and maturities ranging from 30 to 35 days, has stabilized at around 23%. Based on the latest available data, TAMAR stood at 23.2%.

The primary fiscal result (excluding extraordinary income associated with the sale of hydroelectric power plants, in accordance with the IMF methodology) amounted to ARS 6,287,126 million between January and June 2026, equivalent to 0.5% of GDP. In turn, the overall fiscal result reached ARS 416,291 million. The primary result was below the second-quarter target established under the second review of the Extended Fund Facility arrangement with the IMF (ARS 6,861,100 million). For full-year 2026, the primary surplus target amounts to ARS 16,259,900 million, equivalent to 1.4% of GDP.

The Group's Management constantly monitors the evolution of the variables affecting its business, in order to define its course of action and identify the potential impacts on its equity and financial position. These condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in light of these circumstances.

PROSPECTS

The Government seeks to resume part of the macroeconomic and structural agenda that had been deferred during 2025, a year largely conditioned by the mid-term elections. In addition, the accumulation of reserves, the continuation of the fiscal surplus, the resumption of the disinflation process and the consolidation of the economic recovery are key elements to strengthen confidence and ensure the consistency of the macroeconomic framework.

Following the progress achieved in terms of stabilization and the support obtained both domestically and internationally during the first half of the Milei administration, the focus is now on the Argentine Central Bank's ability to accumulate international reserves on a sustained basis. The implementation of a non-sterilized foreign exchange purchase program to remonetize the economy, together with access to debt markets, contributes to this objective. In this context, a scenario of higher international commodity prices, along with increased export volumes from both the agricultural and oil sectors, will provide an additional inflow of foreign currency during the year.

On the other hand, to the extent that the conflict in the Middle East persists over time, higher oil prices will continue to have an impact on domestic prices, slowing the pace of the disinflation process.

In the coming months, we expect economic activity to resume a path of sustained growth within a more stable macroeconomic environment. Greater predictability should help improve private sector expectations, gradually fostering investment and job creation, thereby supporting a recovery in activity. The magnitude and pace of this recovery will be crucial in the run-up to 2027, a presidential election year.

In the medium term, it will be necessary to advance in improving competitiveness through the reduction of logistics costs, the modernization of infrastructure and the simplification of the regulatory environment.

Grupo Galicia continues to pursue the objective of strengthening its leadership position in the financial market, focusing on ensuring business profitability, supported by sustainable growth, the acquisition of new customers and the strengthening of relationships with existing clients. This strategy is based on efficient cost management and disciplined resource allocation, aimed at maximizing value generation in an increasingly competitive environment.

Grupo Galicia believes that this positioning is consolidated through deeper relationships and increased main banking status with its clients, offering a simple, relevant and robust value proposition. In this context, customer experience plays a central role, with the aim of becoming the leading platform in delivering differentiated experiences, enhanced by digital transformation and continuous innovation, providing comprehensive support to the daily needs of individuals and businesses.

The growth of our business is developed within the framework of sustainable management, and to this end, the Group will continue to seek new value creation opportunities oriented toward the common good and environmental stewardship.

REPORT ON THE CONTROLS CARRIED OUT AS SYNDIC REGARDING THE CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DOCUMENTS SUBJECT TO REVISION

1. In our capacity as members of the Supervisory Committee of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. (hereinafter, "the Entity"), we have performed a limited review of the attached Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. comprising:
 - the Consolidated Condensed Interim Statements of Financial Position as of June 30, 2026;
 - the Consolidated Condensed Interim Statements of Income and Other Comprehensive Income for the six-month and three-month periods ended June 30, 2026.
 - the Consolidated Condensed Interim Statements of Changes in Equity and Cash Flows for the six months period ended June 30, 2026.
 - an overview of the significant accounting standards and other explanatory information included in the notes and supplementary schedules; and
 - the Summary of Activity.

Figures and other information relevant to fiscal year 2025 and its interim periods are an integral part of the aforementioned financial statements and are presented for the purpose of being interpreted exclusively in relation to the figures and the information of the current interim period.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DIRECTORS IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. The Board of Directors of the Entity is responsible for the preparation and reasonable presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank. Also, it is responsible for establishing the internal control deemed necessary to enable the preparation of the financial statements free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or errors.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SYNDIC

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion about the documents detailed in point 1, based on the reviews performed within the scope detailed in point 4.
4. Our work was performed in accordance with the legal standards of the Syndic Commission in force in the Argentine Republic and those established in Technical Resolution No. 15 and amendments of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences (Federación Argentina de Consejos Profesionales de Ciencias Económicas, FACPCE). These standards require that the review of the Condensed Interim Financial Statements be carried out in accordance with the standards applicable to review engagements regarding financial statements for interim periods, and include the verification of the consistency of the documents reviewed with the information on the corporate decisions exposed in minutes, and the adequacy of these decisions to the law and bylaws in relation to their formal and documentary aspects. To perform our professional task on the documents detailed in point 1, we have considered the review carried out by the external auditors Price Waterhouse & Co. S.R.L., who issued their limited Review Reports dated August 25, 2026 without qualifications, in accordance with review procedures established in Chapter IV of Technical Resolution No. 37 of the FACPCE for the review of financial statements for interim periods, and the auditing standards for limited reviews issued by the Argentine Central Bank. Such standards require compliance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Professional Council of Economic Sciences of the City of Buenos Aires. This review included the verification of the work planning, the nature, scope and timeliness of the procedures applied and the outcome of the review performed by said professionals. A review of interim financial statements consists of conducting inquiries to the Entity's personnel, mainly those responsible for financial and accounting matters, and conducting analytical and other review procedures. The scope of this review is substantially less than that of an audit examination conducted in accordance with Argentine auditing standards; therefore, it does not allow us to obtain assurance that all significant issues that could be identified in an audit were informed, since the audit's objective is the expression of an opinion on the financial statements, taken as a whole. Consequently, such review does not express an audit opinion.

Since it is not our responsibility to carry out a management control, the review did not extend to the criteria and business decisions of the various areas of the Entity, which are the sole responsibility of the Board of Directors.

Additionally, we inform that, in compliance with the legal controls which are our responsibility, during the interim period we have applied the remaining procedures described in Article 294 of Law 19,550 that we consider necessary according to the circumstances, including, among others, verifying the establishment and maintenance of the directors' guarantee in accordance with IGJ Resolution No. 15/2024, as amended.

We expressly mention that we are independent from Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. and we have complied with the other ethical requirements in accordance with the Code of Ethics and Technical Resolutions No. 15 and 37 of the FACPCE.

We consider that the elements of judgment that we have obtained provide a sufficient and adequate basis for our opinion.

CONCLUSION

Based on our review, within the scope described in section 4, and considering the review report of the external auditors, nothing has come to our attention that would lead us to believe that the condensed interim consolidated financial statements referred to in section 1 of this report have not been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank.

In compliance with the legal controls which are our responsibility, we have no objections.

EMPHASIS PARAGRAPH

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw the attention to Note 1, which indicates that the accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank. Said standards differ from current professional accounting standards (International Financial Reporting Standards [IFRS] adopted by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences [FACPCE]). In Note 1, the Entity has identified the effect on the financial statements derived from the different valuation and exposure criteria.

- ii. the Consolidated Separate Interim of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. have been derived from accounting records maintained, in their formal aspects, in accordance with legal requirements;

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

It should be noted that the Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements have been prepared by applying accounting standards and measurement criteria consistent with those applied by the Company for the preparation of the annual separate financial statements, except for the modifications described in Note 1 \(e\).

a. Unit of Measurement

Law No. 27,468 passed in November 2018 repealed the prohibition to present the Financial Statements adjusted for inflation established by Executive Order 664/2003, delegating its application to each controlling authority.

Also, on December 26, 2018, the CNV issued General Resolution No. 777/2018 authorizing issuing entities to present accounting information in homogeneous currency for annual financial statements, for interim and special periods ending on or after December 31, 2018, except for Financial Institutions and Insurance Companies.

On February 22, 2019, through Communication "A" 6651, the Argentine Central Bank established that the entities subject to its control had to restate the Financial Statements in constant currency for the fiscal years commenced from January 1, 2020 onwards.

Said standard was retroactively applied, and the transition date for financial institutions was January 1, 2019.

In the initial application of inflation adjustment, the equity accounts were restated as follows:

- Capital Stock plus Capital Adjustment: Capital from the subscription date, and if there were a capital adjustment prior to the transition date, this is absorbed in the new restated capital adjustment. For capitalization of accumulated income, the date is their capitalization date.
- Issuance Premium: Subscription Date.
- Irrevocable Contributions: Integration Date, or Decision Date of their Irrevocable nature.
- Profit Reserves: They are considered stated as of 12.31.18.
- The differences regarding the balances determined in accordance with the previous accounting framework were imputed through offsetting entry in Retained Earnings - Adjustment of Income from prior fiscal years.

To calculate the restatement adjustment, the National Consumer Price Index (CPI) prepared by the National Institute of Statistics and Census (INDEC) (base month: December 2016) was used and for those items with a previous date of origin, the Wholesale Price Index (WPI) published by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences (Federación Argentina de Consejos Profesionales en Ciencias Económicas, FACPCE), in accordance with Resolution JG517/16.

The restatement mechanism establishes that:

- Monetary assets and liabilities will not be restated, as they are stated in the current measuring unit at the closing of the reporting period.
- Assets and liabilities subject to adjustments based on specific agreements will be adjusted according to such agreements.
- Non-monetary items measured at their current values at the end of the reporting period, such as net realizable value or others, will not be restated.
- The remaining non-monetary assets and liabilities will be restated by a general price index. The loss or profit from the net monetary position will be included in the net income for the reporting period, disclosing this information in a separate item called Loss on Net Monetary Position.
- Allocation to component items of Other Comprehensive Income in closing currency: in accordance with the provisions of Communication "A" 7211, the accrued monetary income with respect to items of a monetary nature that are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (OCI), must be recorded in the income of the period/fiscal year.

The Company chose to present the Statement of Income items at their restated face value. This implies that they are not disclosed net of inflation effect (in real terms).

NOTES TO THE SEPARATE CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

Likewise, the monetary restatement of both Capital Stock and Paid-in Capital will be imputed to the account "Equity Adjustments - Capital Adjustments," considering the subscription date as the date of origin. When applying restatement of non-monetary assets, it should be considered that the resulting amount must in no case exceed the recoverable value.

Comparative information, as well as all the Statements and Schedules, is stated in homogeneous currency at closing. In the Statement of Changes in Shareholders' Equity and in the Statement of Cash Flows, both the initial balances and the period changes are restated in closing currency.

b. Foreign Currency Translation

- Functional Currency and Presentation Currency

The figures included in the Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements for the Company are stated in their functional currency, i.e., in the currency used in the primary economic environment in which they operate. The Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements are presented in Argentine pesos, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

- Transactions and Balances

The transactions in foreign currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate in force on the transactions or the valuation dates when the items are measured at closing exchange rate. Profits and losses in foreign currency resulting from the settlement of these transactions and the translation of monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency at closing exchange rate, are recognized in the Statement of Income in the item "Exchange Rate Differences on Gold and Foreign Currency," except when they are deferred in equity by transactions which qualify as cash flows hedges, if appropriate.

Balances are converted at the reference exchange rate of the US dollar defined by the Argentine Central Bank, in force at the close of operations on the last business day of each month.

As of June 30, 2026, December 31, 2025 and June 30, 2025, balances in US dollars were translated at the reference exchange rate (ARS 1483.0198, ARS 1459.4167 and ARS 1194.0833, respectively) established by the Argentine Central Bank. In the case of foreign currencies other than the US dollar, they have been converted to this currency using the rates reported by the Argentine Central Bank.

c. Going concern

As of the date of these Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements, there is no uncertainty regarding events or conditions that may give rise to doubts about the possibility of the Company continuing to operate normally as a going concern.

d. Comparative information

Balances as of December 31, 2025 and June 30, 2025 exposed in these Financial Statements, for comparison purposes, arise from the Financial Statements as of those dates stated in closing currency.

Certain reclassifications have been made on the figures corresponding to the financial statements presented in comparative format in order to maintain consistency in the exposure with the figures for the current period.

e. New accounting standards, amendments and interpretations issued by the IASB that have been adopted by the Company

Pursuant to the provisions of the Organic Charter of the Argentine Central Bank and the Law on Financial Institutions, the Argentine Central Bank shall issue its opinion regarding its approval for Financial Institutions as new IFRS, or amendments or repeals of those in force, are approved, and once these changes are adopted through the Adoption Circulars issued by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils in Economic Sciences (Federación Argentina de Consejos Profesionales en Ciencias Económicas, FACPCE). In general, the early application of any IFRS will not be allowed, unless it is specifically allowed when it is adopted.

Publication date	May, 2024
Effective date	As from January 2026
Impact	No significant impact on the Company's financial statements.
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7: Contracts for electricity dependent on nature
Item	These amendments allow for a more accurate accounting representation of renewable energy contracts in the financial statements through the following changes: clarifying the application of the "own use" requirements; allowing, in certain cases, hedge accounting when these contracts are used as hedging instruments; and introducing new disclosures to better understand the impact of these contracts on financial performance and cash flows.
Publication date	December, 2024
Effective date	Annual periods commenced as of January 2026.
Impact	No significant impact on the Company's financial statements.
Annual improvements: IFRS 1, IFRS 7, IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7
Item	Annual improvements are limited to changes that clarify the wording of an Accounting Standard or correct relatively minor unintended consequences, omissions or conflicts between the requirements of Accounting Standards. The 2024 amendments relate to the following standards: IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards; IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures and its corresponding Application Guidance; IFRS 9 Financial Instruments IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements; and IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows.

For the period commenced January 1, 2026 and ended June 30, 2026, in comparative format. Figures stated in homogeneous currency, in thousand Argentine pesos, except as otherwise provided.

IFRS 18: Presentation and Information to be Disclosed in the Financial Statements

Item	This new standard places special emphasis on the presentation of the Statement of Income. The new, essential concepts introduced by IFRS 18 relate to: The structure of the Statement of Income; disclosure requirements in the financial statements for certain yield measurements that are not reported in an entity's financial statements (i.e., yield measurements defined by the companies' management); and improvements in the principles of aggregation and disaggregation of accounting items in the primary financial statements and the explanatory notes, in general.
Publication date	April, 2024
Effective date	Annual periods commenced as of January 2027. Early application is permitted.
Impact	The impact on the Company's financial statements is being evaluated.

IFRS 19: Subsidiaries under No Public Responsibility - Disclosures

Item	This voluntary standard allows eligible subsidiaries to replace the disclosures required in each specific IFRS with reduced disclosures, also established in the standard. It seeks to balance the information needs of the users of the financial statements of these entities while saving costs for those responsible for preparing them. A subsidiary will be eligible if: it is under no public responsibility; and its parent company presents consolidated financial statements for public use in compliance with IFRS standards.
Publication date	May, 2024
Effective date	January 2027. Early application is permitted.
Impact	No significant impact is expected on the Company's financial statements.

Amendment to IFRS 19: Subsidiaries under No Public Responsibility - Disclosure Requirements

Item	The amendments to IFRS 19 reduce the disclosure requirements for eligible subsidiaries without public accountability, aligning the Standard with IFRSs and amendments issued between February 2021 and May 2024. The amendments cover, among other matters, IFRS 18, amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7, amendments to IAS 12, amendments to IAS 21, and amendments to IFRS 9. Going forward, IFRS 19 will be amended concurrently with the issuance or revision of other IFRSs by the IASB.
Publication date	August, 2025
Effective date	These amendments allow IFRS 19 to incorporate all changes effective up to 1 January 2027, which is the date on which the Standard becomes effective.
Impact	No significant impact is expected on the Company's financial statements.

Amendments to IAS 21 - Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates

Item	The IASB has issued amendments to IAS 21 on translation to a hyperinflationary presentation currency. These amendments are only relevant to entities whose presentation currency is that of a hyperinflationary economy and whose functional currency, or that of their foreign operations, is that of a non-hyperinflationary economy. The amendments require that all amounts (including comparative figures) be translated from a functional currency that is the currency of a non-hyperinflationary economy to a presentation currency that is the currency of a hyperinflationary economy, using the closing exchange rate at the date of the latest statement of financial position. The amendments also include an exception for entities whose functional and presentation currency is that of a hyperinflationary economy, allowing them not to retranslate comparative figures for their foreign operations into the functional currency of a non-hyperinflationary economy.
Publication date	November, 2025
Effective date	January 2027. Early application is permitted.
Impact	No significant impact is expected on the Company's financial statements.

IFRS 20 – Regulatory Assets and Regulatory Liabilities

Item	This new standard was designed for entities subject to a specific type of rate regulation. Its main objective is to help investors and users of financial statements better understand how rate regulation affects an entity's financial performance, financial position, and prospects for future cash flows.
Publication date	May, 2026.
Effective date	For annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2029.
Impact	No significant impact is expected on the Company's financial statements.

There are no other IFRS or IFRIC interpretations that are not effective and are expected to have a significant effect.

NOTE 2. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND POLICIES

The preparation of Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements in accordance with the IFRS- based accounting framework requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires the Management to exercise their judgment in the application process of the accounting standards established by the Argentine Central Bank to establish the Company's accounting standards.

The preparation of the Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements requires that estimates and evaluations be made to determine the amount of recorded assets and liabilities, and contingent assets and liabilities disclosed at the date of issuance thereof, as well as income and expenses recorded in the period. In this regard, estimates are made to calculate at a given time, among others, the fair value of Level 3 financial instruments, impairment losses on financial instruments, impairment of non-financial assets, income tax and deferred tax. Likewise, conditions related to non-financial assets are monitored to determine whether they require a review of the remaining amortization or depreciation period, or indicate impairment in value that cannot be recovered. Future actual results may differ from the estimates and assessments made at the date of preparation of these Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements.

In the preparation of these Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements, the critical judgments made by the Company when applying the accounting standards and the sources of information used for the respective estimates, are the same as those applied in the separate financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, except for the modifications described in Note 1 \(e\).

NOTE 3. FAIR VALUES

The Company classifies the fair values of the financial instruments in 3 levels, according to the quality of the information used for their determination.

Level 1 Fair Value: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (as publicly traded derivative instruments, debt securities or instruments available for sale) is based on the quoted market prices (not adjusted) as of the date of the reporting period/fiscal year. If the quoted price is available and there is an asset market for the instrument, it will be included in level 1.

Level 2 Fair Value: The fair value of financial instruments not traded in active markets, for example, derivatives available over-the-counter, is determined using valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable information and place the least possible trust in the Company's specific estimates. If all the relevant variables to establish the fair value of a financial instrument are observable, the instrument is included in Level 2. If some of the variables for determining the price are not observable, the instrument will be valued in Level 3.

Level 3 Fair Value: If one or more relevant variables are not based on observable market information, the instrument is included in Level 3. This is the case of unlisted equity instruments.

Only when the instrument has an observable market price will it return to Level 1 and maintain that level as long as it continues to trade. This is called Transfer between Levels.

Valuation Techniques

The valuation techniques to determine the Fair Values include:

- Market prices or quotes of similar instruments.
- Determination of the estimated current value of the instruments.

The assessment technique to determine the Level 2 fair value is based on information other than the quote price included in Level 1, which are directly observable for assets or liabilities, both directly (i.e., prices) and indirectly (i.e., deriving from prices).

The assessment technique to determine the Level 3 fair value of financial instruments is based on the price drawn by the curve, which is a method that compares the spread between the sovereign bond curve and the average cut-off rates of primary issuances, representing the different segments, according to the different risk ratings. If there are no representative primary issuances throughout the month, the following variants will be used:

- Secondary market prices of instruments under the same conditions, which had quoted in the assessment month.
- Bidding and/or secondary market prices of the previous month, which will be taken based on their representativeness.
- Spread calculated in the previous month, and it will be applied to the sovereign curve, in accordance with their reasonableness.
- A specific margin is applied, defined according to historical yields of instruments under the same conditions, based on a substantiated justification.

Based on the foregoing, the rates and spreads are determined to be used to discount the future cash flows and generate the instrument price.

21.2 Debt Securities Issuance

The Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting held on April 25, 2019 approved the extension of the validity of the "Global Program for the issuance of simple Debt Securities not convertible into shares, in the short, medium and/or long term" in order to maintain the diversity of funding alternatives for the issuance of simple Debt Securities, not convertible into shares, subordinated or not, adjustable or not, with or without collateral, in the short, medium and/or long term, for a maximum nominal outstanding amount at any time during the validity of the Program of thousand USD 100,000 or its equivalent in other currencies or units of value, as determined by the Board of Directors, for a term of five years, or the longer term authorized by the Regulations.

On June 18, 2024 the CNV, by means of provision DI-2024-47-APN-GE#CNV, granted a new five-year extension to the program's term. As of the date of these separate condensed interim financial statements, no marketable debt securities have been issued under the program.

21.3. Restrictions to Distribution of Profits

According to Art. 70 of the General Companies Act, Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. must transfer to Legal Reserve 5% of the profit for the fiscal year, until said reserve reaches 20% of the capital stock plus the balance of the Capital Adjustment account. When this Reserve decreases for any cause, profits cannot be distributed until the Reserve is reinstated.

NOTE 22. ECONOMIC CONTEXT WHERE THE COMPANY OPERATES

The Company operates in a complex economic context, both in the national and international spheres.

Regarding the international environment, the second quarter of 2026 was shaped by volatility resulting from the conflict between the United States and Iran, the change in leadership of the Federal Reserve (Fed), and a marked acceleration in investment in Artificial Intelligence (AI) infrastructure. The quarter began with a conditional ceasefire and the initial steps toward reopening the Strait of Hormuz, which reduced the geopolitical risk premium and placed downward pressure on crude oil prices. Brent crude oil, which had reached highs of US$ 119 per barrel during the first quarter, declined by 19.3% in April and 20.8% in May, closing June at approximately US$ 70 per barrel, virtually returning to pre-war levels.

On the monetary front, Kevin Warsh assumed the chairmanship of the Federal Reserve at the end of May, in a context of accelerating inflation, with core PCE inflation reaching 3.4% year-over-year in May and interest rates standing at 3.5%-3.75%. In turn, the European Central Bank also kept interest rates unchanged, while highlighting concerns regarding the increase in energy costs.

The combination of lower geopolitical risk, solid corporate earnings and expansion of AI-related capital expenditures (CapEx) fully reversed the scenario observed during the previous quarter. The S&P 500 increased by 15.2% and the Nasdaq by 21.6%.

led by the semiconductor sector. Following declines of 4.3% and 7.0%, respectively, during the first quarter, cumulative performance as of the end of the second quarter of 2026 reached 10.2% and 13.1%, respectively.

At the local level, after closing 2025 with average Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth of 4.5%, which generated a statistical carryover effect of 1.0% for the current year, the economy recorded a seasonally adjusted increase of 0.7% in the first quarter of 2026. With respect to the second quarter, the Monthly Economic Activity Estimator (EMAE) showed seasonally adjusted monthly contractions in April (-1.5%) and May (-0.5%). Consequently, in May the indicator stood 1.5% below the December 2025 level.

During the first three months of 2026, and in line with the trend observed during the second half of 2025, inflation continued to accelerate on a monthly basis, reaching a peak of 3.4% in March 2026. In subsequent months, inflation decelerated, recording monthly variations of 2.6% in April, 2.1% in May and 1.9% in June. In July, headline inflation reached 2.1%, accelerating relative to June, partly due to seasonal factors. Cumulative inflation during the first seven months of 2026 amounted to 19.3%, while the year-over-year inflation rate in July stood at 33.8%.

During the first four months of 2026, the exchange rate followed a downward trend, which began to reverse in mid-April. During the first four months of the year, the exchange rate declined by 4.6%, but increased by 7.6% between April and July. Based on the latest available information, the ARS/USD exchange rate stood at ARS 1,506.9 per US$, compared to ARS 1,459.4 per US$ at the end of 2025.

As from January 1, 2026, the upper and lower limits of the exchange rate floating band began to adjust each month in line with the latest monthly inflation rate published by INDEC (t-2). The exchange rate remains within the floating exchange rate band.

During 2026, implementation of the Extended Fund Facility arrangement agreed with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) continued. In May 2026, the IMF Executive Board approved the second review of the program, enabling a disbursement of approximately US$ 1.0 billion. In its published report, the IMF acknowledged the progress achieved under the stabilization program, reflected in the deceleration of inflation and the maintenance of fiscal surpluses.

The second review of the IMF arrangement establishes a minimum foreign currency purchase target of US$ 10.0 billion and a minimum increase in net international reserves of US$ 8.0 billion for 2026. At the beginning of 2026, the Argentine Central Bank had already resumed foreign currency purchases from the private sector within the context of the remonetization phase announced by the monetary authority. As of the date of issuance of this report, purchases totaled US$ 13.587 billion and international reserves amounted to US$ 49.546 billion. This represents an increase of US$ 8.451 billion compared to year-end 2025.

During 2026, deposits and loans in U.S. dollars held by the private sector increased. As of August 11, 2026, private sector deposits denominated in foreign currency totaled US$ 40.365 billion, representing an increase of US$ 3.380 billion compared to the year-end 2025 balance of US$ 36.985 billion. Likewise, U.S. dollar-denominated loans to the private sector amounted to US$ 24.874 billion, representing an increase of US$ 6.271 billion compared to the year-end 2025 balance of US$ 18.603 billion.

During 2026, the monetary base expanded by ARS 3,074,663 million, mainly explained by foreign currency purchases from the private sector (ARS 19,095,239 million) and profit transfers to the Treasury (ARS 24,400,000 million). This effect was partially offset through Other Operations with the Treasury (ARS -22,492,093 million), foreign currency sales to the Treasury (ARS -9,930,034 million) and Other factors (ARS -7,998,450 million).

After closing 2025 at 28.9%, the Argentine Wholesale Rate (TAMAR) of private banks, which is calculated based on peso-denominated time deposits with a minimum amount of ARS 1.3 billion and maturities ranging from 30 to 35 days, has stabilized at around 23%. Based on the latest available data, TAMAR stood at 23.2%.

The primary fiscal result (excluding extraordinary income associated with the sale of hydroelectric power plants, in accordance with the IMF methodology) amounted to ARS 6,287,126 million between January and June 2026, equivalent to 0.5% of GDP. In turn, the overall fiscal result reached ARS 416,291 million. The primary result was below the second-quarter target established under the second review of the Extended Fund Facility arrangement with the IMF (ARS 6,861,100 million). For full-year 2026, the primary surplus target amounts to ARS 16,259,900 million, equivalent to 1.4% of GDP.

SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE'S REPORT

To Shareholders, Chairman and Directors of

GRUPO FINANCIERO GALICIA S.A.

Registered Address: Tte. Gral. Juan D. Perón 430, Piso 25

Autonomous City of Buenos Aires

Tax ID No. 30-70496280-7

REPORT ON THE CONTROLS CARRIED OUT AS SYNDIC REGARDING THE SEPARATE CONDENSED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DOCUMENTS SUBJECT TO REVISION

1. In our capacity as members of the Supervisory Committee of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. (hereinafter, "the Entity"), we have performed a limited review of the attached Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. comprising:
 - the Separate Condensed Interim Statements of Financial Position as of June 30, 2026;
 - the Separate Condensed Interim Statements of Income and Other Comprehensive Income for the three and six month period ended June 30, 2026.
 - the Separate Condensed Interim Statements of Changes in Equity and Cash Flows for the six month period ended June 30, 2026.
 - an overview of the significant accounting standards and other explanatory information included in the notes and supplementary schedules;

Figures and other information relevant to fiscal year 2025 and its interim periods are an integral part of the aforementioned financial statements and are presented for the purpose of being interpreted exclusively in relation to the figures and the information of the current interim period.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DIRECTORS IN RELATION TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. The Board of Directors of the Entity is responsible for the preparation and reasonable presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank. Also, it is responsible for establishing the internal control deemed necessary to enable the preparation of the financial statements free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or errors.

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SYNDIC

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion about the documents detailed in point 1, based on the reviews performed within the scope detailed in point 4.
4. Our work was performed in accordance with the legal standards of the Syndic Commission in force in the Argentine Republic and those established in Technical Resolution No. 15 and amendments of the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences (Federación Argentina de Consejos Profesionales de Ciencias Económicas, FACPCE). These standards require that the review of the Condensed Interim Financial Statements be carried out in accordance with the standards applicable to review engagements regarding financial statements for interim periods, and include the verification of the consistency of the documents reviewed with the information on the corporate decisions exposed in minutes, and the adequacy of these decisions to the law and bylaws in relation to their formal and documentary aspects. To perform our professional task on the documents detailed in point 1, we have considered the review carried out by the external auditors Price Waterhouse & Co. S.R.L., who issued their limited Review Reports dated August 25, 2026 without qualifications, in accordance with review procedures established in Chapter IV of Technical Resolution No. 37 of the FACPCE for the review of financial statements for interim periods, and the auditing standards for limited reviews issued by the Argentine Central Bank. Such standards require compliance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Professional Council of Economic Sciences of the City of Buenos Aires. This review included the verification of the work planning, the nature, scope and timeliness of the procedures applied and the outcome of the review performed by said professionals. A review of interim financial statements consists of conducting inquiries to the Entity's personnel, mainly those responsible for financial and accounting matters, and conducting analytical and other review procedures. The scope of this review is substantially less than that of an audit examination conducted in accordance with Argentine auditing standards; therefore, it does not allow us to obtain assurance that all significant issues that could be identified in an audit were informed, since the audit's objective is the expression of an opinion on the financial statements, taken as a whole. Consequently, such review does not express an audit opinion.

Since it is not our responsibility to carry out a management control, the review did not extend to the criteria and business decisions of the various areas of the Entity, which are the sole responsibility of the Board of Directors.

Additionally, we inform that, in compliance with the legal controls which are our responsibility, during the interim period we have applied the remaining procedures described in Article 294 of Law 19,550 that we consider necessary according to the circumstances, including, among others, verifying the establishment and maintenance of the directors' guarantee in accordance with IGJ Resolution No. 15/2024, as amended.

We expressly mention that we are independent from Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. and we have complied with the other ethical requirements in accordance with the Code of Ethics and Technical Resolutions No. 15 and 37 of the FACPCE.

We consider that the elements of judgment that we have obtained provide a sufficient and adequate basis for our opinion.

CONCLUSION

Based on our review, within the scope described in section 4, and considering the review report of the external auditors, nothing has come to our attention that would lead us to believe that the separate interim consolidated financial statements referred to in section 1 of this report have not been prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank.

In compliance with the legal controls which are our responsibility, we have no objections.

EMPHASIS PARAGRAPH

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw the attention to Note 1, which indicates that the accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank. Said standards differ from current professional accounting standards (International Financial Reporting Standards [IFRS] adopted by the Argentine Federation of Professional Councils of Economic Sciences [FACPCE]). In Note 1, the Entity has identified the effect on the financial statements derived from the different valuation and exposure criteria.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

- i. the Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements of Grupo Financiero Galicia S.A. as of June 30, 2026 are recorded in the "Inventory and Balance Sheets" book and, as far as is our responsibility, comply with the provisions of (hereinafter, the “Company”), which comprise the Separate Condensed Interim Statement of Financial Position as of June 30, 2026, the Separate Condensed Interim Statements of Income and Other Comprehensive Income for the six and three-month periods ended June 30, 2026, and the Separate Condensed Interim Statement of Changes in Shareholder’s Equity and Cash Flows for the six-month period ended June 30, 2026, the selected explanatory notes and schedules that complement them.

These standards require that we comply with applicable ethical and independence requirements. A review of condensed interim financial statements involves making inquiries to the Company’s staff responsible for financial and accounting aspects and applying analytical procedures and other review procedures. The scope of this review is substantially less than that of an audit and, consequently, does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements mentioned in the first paragraph of this report have not been prepared, in all significant respects, in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank (“BCRA”).

Emphasis of Matter paragraph on accounting basis

Without modifying our conclusion, as mentioned in Note 1, the attached Separate Condensed Interim Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting framework established by the Argentine Central Bank ("BCRA"). These standards differ from current professional accounting standards ("IFRS Accounting Standards" adopted by the FACPCE). In the above-mentioned note, the Company has identified the effect on the financial statements derived from the different measurement and disclosure criteria.
